SOME FALSE STATEMENTS

Corrected by Ex-Secretary of State, Hon. C M. Cooke

THE FIGURES VINDICATE HIM

Does Not Believe Secretary Thompson Gave the Progressive Farmer its Misinformation.

The following letter appears in this morning's Raleigh papers:

My attention has been called to a publication made in the Progressive Farmer of its issue of April 19th last, comparing the present administration of the secretary of state with the administrations of his predecessors, which does injustice to the latter. There have been other references to this subject in the same paper and by other papers in the state, and unjust deductions drawn from the estimates and figures given in said article.

The article referred to gives what is claimed to be a correct statement of the taxes from insurance companies collected and paid to the treasurer by the present secretary of state from Jan., 1897, to April 1st, 1898, and compares this statement with amount reported collected and paid over by Secretary Cooke from September 1, 1895, to January 1, 1897.

To one unacquainted with the law this comparison would seem fair. But to one familiar with the law it would appear, as is the fact, that the period covered by the time selected from Dr. Thompson's administration is for the purpose of collecting the commission taxes on insurance, to which it refers, practically two years, while the period covered by the time selected from Secretary Cooke's admistration in respect to this same subject matter covers practicall only one year.

The law in respect to the commission taxes on insurance companies is:

"That the commission tax of 2 per cent on the receipts of the insurance companies is due and payable within 30 days after the reports of the companies are filed, and the reports must be filed within 30 days after the 1st days of January and July respectively. A much larger business is done by the insurance companies during the fall months and the taxes on the January reports are much larger than on the July reports. It will be seen that while there were sixteen months of the Cooke administration it only embraced the times for the receiving of two semi-annual reports and two semi-annual taxes—namely, January, 1896, and July 1896, while the 14½ months taken from Dr. Thompson's administration includes the return periods of January, 1897, July, 1897 and January, 1898.

There are two taxes on insurance companies. The one is the commission tax referred to above and the other the specific license tax. The commission tax has been uniformly 2 per cent, but the law allowing a reduction of this tax 1 per cent for investments of the companies' receipts in this state has not been uniform in respect to its requirements. For years this reduction was allowed on the investment of one-half of the premium receipts in this state, and a number of the insurance companies complied with the law and only paid 1 per cent taxes on their receipts.

In 1895, during the last year of Secretary Coke's administration, the law was changed so as to require the investment in this state of one-fourth of the entire assets of the company to secure this reduction. None of the companies except those chartered in North Carolina availed themselves of this new law. This should be considered in favor of Colonel Coke and Colonel Saunders, in considering the increase of the amount of txes collected by the Cooke and Thompson administrations over theirs. The license tax has been several times changed. At the commencement of Colonel Saunders' administration in 1879, it was $100 on both fire and life insurance companies and it so continued until the act of the legislature preceding the adoption of the Code in 1883, when it was raised to $120, and it is so written in the Code. But in 1885 this license tax was reduced, both for fire and life insurance companies to $50, and so continued to 1891, when it was again raised to $100. In 1895 the tax on fire insurance companies was left at $100, but was increased to $200 on fire companies. In March, 1897, it was increased to $200 on fire companies and $250 life companies. So it will be seen that during the last year of the Coke administration the license on the fire insurance was twice what it was during six years of the Saunder's administration, and the license on life insurance companies was four times as great as during the said

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

In behalf of the citizens of High Point we welcome the many visitors to our city and beg to inform them that while they may not be able to see the high point from which the name of the city was derived, that we have reached the "high point" both in industry and hospitality.

STEPPED FROM A TRESTLE.

Accident at the Place Where Clark Anthony Was Killed.

Last night about 8 o'clock a white man named David Crawford fell from the trestle on the western end of the Southern yard and was right badly hurt. Crawford is from Gastonia and stopped over here a few hours on his way to Danville. He was walking down the southern track toward the coal chute and was on the trestle where the C.F. & Y.V. road runs under the trestle when he heard the Winston train starting out. In the dark he did not notice that he was on a trestle and in getting out of the way of the train he stepped off the trestle on to the C. F. and Y. V. track, about twenty feet below.

Crawford lay there unconscious for several hours and when he recovered consciousness heard a train coming on the C. F. and Y. V. track. He was unable to rise but to remain there meant death. He managed, however, to crawl from the track into the ditch, where he lay in six inches of water until found about 3 o'clock this morning and carried to Clegg's hotel, where Dr. Turner examined and dressed his wounds. No bones were broken and the doctor thinks he will be able to be out in a few days.

This is the place where Clark Anthony lost his life a few weeks since by being knocked off the trestle by the Winston train.

Typhoid fever in most cases is contracted by the use of impure water. Be careful what you drink at this season of the year. A few gallons of Aetna Lithia Water used now may prevent a spell of fever. R. P. Goad sells it at Gardner's drug store.

Expected That Hostilities Will Be Suspended

MUTINY AMONG 'FRISCO TROOPS

Forty-Five of The Boys Refused to Drill On The Scant Rations Given Them and Were Arrested.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 10—It is the general expectation that hostilities between Spain and the United States will be suspended by formal order within the next twenty-four hours. President McKinley is reported to be satisfied with the general terms of Spain's note of acceptance. He expects M. Cambon to meet him today with full authority and final preparation to complete the peace treaty.

Secretary Alger stated this morning that there will be no extra session of the cabinet to consider peace terms, but that the protocol will be drawn up at its regular session.

DAY AND CAMBON CONFER.

Washington, August 10—A meeting was had this morning between Secretary Day and the French Ambassador at the state department to consider certain details of the Spanish reply left over from Yesterday's conference at the white house. There is reason to believe that the Spanish government is about to recede from certain conditions which were sought to be imposed yesterday and that the result will be an agreement upon the basis of the peace terms.

Later—Day and Cambon have agreed upon the protocol and Cambon has cabled Madrid for authority to sign it.

REFUSED TO MARCH.

San Francisco, August 10—Company M, of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment, composed of recruits for the Manila expedition mutinied yesterday afternoon. After the noon meal forty-five men refused to drill on the scant fare furnished them. They were arrested promptly and ordered to be stripped of all arms and marched through the camp for three hours, guarded by sentinels from the other companies. They will be courtmartialed.

General King sails on Saturday for Manila with troops. The First Iowa regiment has been ordered to prepare for embarkation.

TROOPS WITHOUT SHELTER.

Montauk Point, August 10—In the midst of a heavy storm this morning the workmen engaged in equipping the camp struck for higher wages and shorter hours, refusing to work until granted. The camp is in much confusion and the troops are without shelter, the government being unable to prepare for them.

LISTENING FOR THE NEWS.

Washington, August 10—The war department expects to hear within the next few days of the fall of San Juan. All recent despatches from General Miles indicats that three distinct detachments of troops are advancing steadily towards the Porto Rican capital under circumstances which give hope of a speedy and successful close of the campaign.

SAILED FOR PORT RICO.

New York, August 10 -The transport Chester with the First regiment of volunteer engineers sailed for Porto this morning.

KITCHIN AT HILLSBORO.

Ably Discussed Democratic Principles at Orange Court.

Hillsboro, N. C., August 9—A large crowd was here today attending Orange Superior court. Congressman Kitchin arrived this morning and delivered an eloquent speech during court recess. He gave an excellent account of his stewardship and ably discussed Democratic principles. He declared that the charges made by populist papers that the late state democratic convention was dominated by goldbugs and railroad attorneys, was untrue and challenged those making such charges to name ten per cent. of that convention who were either goldbugs or under railroad influences.—Special to News and Observer.

The Excursion Tomorrow.

Indications are that a large number of our people will go on the excursion to the Masonic picnic at Mocksville tomorrow. Tickets are at Holton's drug store and all who secure them today will secure a reserved seat without extra cost which the managers agree to hold for them. Mr. Conrad says if from any providential cause parties find they cannot go their money will be refunded. The object and purpose of the management is to avoid crowding and provide good accommodations for those who go. Secure your tickets at once as only a part of the train can be held in reserve.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE.

A Young Man Injured, But Doesn't Know How It Was Done.

Last night a young man who seemed to be in a dazed condition called on Dr. Michaux at his office. He had received an injury and was suffering considerable pain. The doctor made a partial examination and located the injury in the left shoulder. It was temporarily dressed and a carriage called in which the young man was sent out to Proximity where he said he worked.

The strange part of it is he seemed to have been perfectly sober, and yet could not tell where he had been or how he got hurt. He didn't know how he got to the doctor's office, and all was blank after he left his work in the afternoon and came up town. Dr. Michaux directed that he be carried to his room where he could receive proper medical examination and attention.

This was done and later in the night Dr. Turner was summoned and upon investigation found the left collar bone broken. The young man was still unable to account for the injury or to tell where he had been. He is right badly bruised, says the doctor, but there appears to be no serious injury. His name could not be learned.

STUNNED AND DEMORALIZED

By The Great Victory Won By Americans at Malato,

FOR ACTION AGAINST MANILA.

Land and Sea Forces About Ready to Co-operate—Further News of The Malato Engagement.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Aug. 5, via Hong Kong, Aug. 10—The Spaniards are stunned and completely demoralized by the great victory which was won by the Americans against such overwhelming odds on the night of July 31st.

According to the reports brought by refugees all advantages were so clearly on the side of the Spanish that the soldiers and residents in Manila expected nothing less than the driving of the Americans in the sea. Their hopes also, had been buoyed up by the Spanish press at Manila, which published erroneous and lying reports as to the woeful conditions and weakness of the Americans as to numbers.

The Spanish loss was very heavy, including among the number killed several officers. The Spanish plan was to turn the Americans' flank and make a joint attack on their front and right with the intention of killing as many as possible and hoping to demoralize the American forces before they made an advance on Malila.

They fought doggedly with this end in view, but the steady fire of the American rifles and batteries was utterly unexpected and caused the Spaniards to withdraw into the Malato forts and trenches.

STRIPPING FOR ACTION.

Cavite, Aug. 5, via Hong Hong, Aug. 10—Now that the monitor Monterey has arrived the action against Manila by the land and sea forces will come quickly.

The ships have been stripped for action during the past few days, and nearly all the boats have been sent ashore and hauled up at Cavite navy yard.

The army preparations, however, are yet incomplete, as the surf has been too heavy to land troops. The wind has been blowing a gale for the last two days, thus rendering it impossible to communicate with Camp Dewey.

The total number killed in the fight of July 31st is fourteen; number of wounded, forty-six.

The State Fair 1898.

It having come to the knowledge of the managers of the State Fair that a rumor prevails in certain sections of the state, that a fair would not be held next fall in consequence of the failure of the Agricultural Department to make an appropriation in its aid, they desire to state that such a rumor is entirely groundless. The State Fair will be held as usual, and the same premiums, with slight modifications, will be offered as heretofore.

The premium list has been carefully revised, and is now in the hands of the printer, and will be mailed to the patrons of the fair within the next ten days.

The failure of the Agricultural Department to make the appropriation asked for was disappointing but not embarrassing. It was solicited because the fair management desired to increase the premiums in the Agricultural Department—that department in which farmers are exclusively interested.

The guano tax being collected from the farmers, the Fair Executive Committee thought it would be a very proper and appropriate act on the part of the Board of Agriculture to make an appropriation from the surplus on hand, every dollar of which would have gone to the farmers. They saw proper, however, not to do so and the fair authorities have no criticism to offer. The refusal to make the appropriation merely had the effect of preventing them from increasing the amount of premiums, that are competed for exclusively by farmers.

BLOOD MONEY.

College trustees and religions journals may squirm, but the fact remains that they are not in a position to oppose trusts so long as they accept the blood money wrung from the public, and it is but natural that these trusts can have an influence in shaping the policy of these colleges. If trustees and professors are not better than the balance of mankind they will be influenced. "Christian Education" cannot succeed with such environments.—Progressive Farmer

Blood money! What is blood money? Our contemporary terms it "money wrung from the public." If it is wrong to use this money when donated to a good cause what must become of it? If it is dangerous to use it for schools isn't it dangerous to use it for anything else? And what must we do with the manipulators of the trusts? Must we say to them when they go to church and attempt to place a dollar on the plate: "No sir, your money is not legal tender here; it is the price of human blood and is deadening and damning to religious institutions?" Must we?

If not then, must we take it and lay the church open to the charge of being controlled by the trusts? If there is anything in the "blood money" cry there are as many sides to it as the one-eyed negro had, including the blind side. If the papers who yell "blood money" until they are red in the face are sincere they must change their views on the income tax proposition.

If that measure should become law would not the largest part of the tax be collected from trust manipulators and bond clippers? And would the Progressive Farmer say to them: "No sir, your money is the price of human blood; it was unjustly wrung from the toiling masses and therefore no longer fit for use. Your dollars were once good dollars, but they are now tainted with corruption; they are vile and reeking with poison and if they are taken in here they will prove disastrous and ruinous to our public institutions." Would not this be the way to treat them?

Is there, after all, anything in the "blood money" cry? If not, then get out from behind the "bloody" screen and make your charges openly. If the use of the money in itself is not the cause of all the discussion now on, what is the cause? Make your charges direct and there will be an exhibition of contortionists on the other side of the fence.

We deem it unnecessary to apologize for surrendering so much space today to the letter of Ex-Secretary of State, Hon. Chas. M. Cooke. Fusionists have challenged democrats to print the facts therein contained.

six years, and twice as much as it was during Saunders' administration, from 1883, and all of the Coke administration except the last year. Now the tax during the Thompson administration has been twice as great on the fire insurance companies as it was during the Cooke administration and of the Coke administration and the tax on life companies 150 per cent greater than in the first three years of the Coke administration and 25 per cent greater than in the last year of Coke's administration and during the Cooke administraton.

According to the report made by Secretary Cooke of the last General Assembly the amounts collected by his predecessor and himself and paid into the treasury on account of these insurance taxes for the two years preceding December 31, 1895, are as follows:

Insurance Commission tax 1895 (by Coke).....	$35,652.45
License tax 1895 (by Coke)..	10,016.58
	$45,659.04
Insurance Commis'n tax 1896 (by Cooke)	$46,333.03
License tax 1896 (by Coke).....	13,375.80
	$59,708.83
In addition to the above there was on deposit in the bank a part of the amount and turned over to secretary Thompson.....	$2,966.14

Dr. Thompson's books show that he collected during the first year of his administration, that is, us to January 1, 1898, as follows:

For Commission Tax.....	$59,057.01
For License Tax.....	25,963.62
	$85,020.63

So it will be seen that the collections in 1896, under the Cooke administration exceeded the collections of 1895, the last year of the Coke administration by $17,005.45. The increase in 1896 over 1895 would be accounted for by the increase in the number of insurance companies and the extension of the business; and the increase of Secretary Thompson's administration for 1897 over 1896 would be accounted by the increase of the amount of license tax because of the higher rate. This alone would amount to something over $10,000. There has alone been a slight increase in the number of companies, and there has been much increase of the commission tax on account of extension of business.

Those who have not investigated the development of the insurance business of North Carolina have no idea to what extent and how rapidly it has continually grown in recent years. A reference to the annual statements of Secretary Cooke made in 1896 and to that of Secretary Thompson made in 1897 shows that in one year this increase amounted to over a quarter of a million dollars for sixteen life companies, and the increase in the commission tax thereon to more than five thousand dollars.

The license year of insurance companies is from April to April. Some of the taxes aggregating over two thousand dollars—due for the year commencing 1st of April, 1896, and ending 1st of April, 1897, which were collectable under the Cooke administration, were collected by Secretary Thompson after he came into office. Some of these were from old companies which had been doing business in the state for sometime and who had made their regular report and their solvency approved, but the tax had not been paid nor new license issued to the companies. The other companies were doing business without license and without the knowledge of the secretary of state who had no means of detecting them in so doing. When these companies filed reports at the beginning of 1897, these reports at the beginning of 1897, these reports showed that they had been doing business in North Carolina in 1896, and Secretary Thompson, as was always the rule of the office, collected the full amount of taxes which they should have paid in 1896, before authorizing them to do business for 1897.

It appears from the report of Capt. Coke that the collection from the 1st of April, 1891, to April, 1895, amounted to $166,994.60, an average of $41,498.63. Now the fact that the amounts collected per year by Secretary Coke were less than the amounts collected by Secretary Cooke and Secretary Thompson ought not to be considered as any evidence of unfaithfulness on the part of Secretary Coke, for the reason that it is accounted for by the increase of the license tax and the large extension of the insurance. And this applies also to the collections made under Colonel Saunder s administration. During the early years of his administration the insurance business was insignificant as compared with what it is now, and during the last six years of his administration the license tax was only $50 a year for all companies, whereas during Secretary Thompson's administration it is $250 a year for life companies and $200 a year for fire companies. During these six years the annual amount of license tax could not have been more than $5,000. A greater injustice could not be done to the memory of the brave and honorable man than to suggest this as ground for impeaching his character either for integrity or faithfulness.

On the day of Dr. Thompson's qualification as secretary of state I presented to him a balance sheet showing a balance on deposit to the credit of secretary of state on all accounts of $9,766.64, which amount I immediately turned over to him. I at the same time turned over to him the books of the office, including two ledgers, which contained a full account of my administration of the office. I believe Dr. Thompson is an intelligent and efficient officer. As he did not call my attention to any error found in the office, I am obliged to conclude that he has given out no statement to any one which reflects in any way upon my administration of the office and that he is in no way responsible for the publication referred to in the beginning of this communication.

MILES HAS ENOUGH TROOPS.

Embarkation Stopped—General Wade Will Not Sail.

Washington, August 9—The interesting feature of today's news of the War Department was the cable from General Miles stating that he did not need reinforcements and advising that no more troops be sent to Porto Rico. The effect of this dispatch was to stop the embarkation of troops at Newport News and to stop General Wade's corps from sailing. The disposition of troops which are not now needed for active service was considered at once by the department officials and the determination was reached that there would be a general movement from the larger camps. Some of these troops will be sent north where they will be in a cooler climate and stationed at camps which are under consideration but which have not yet been definitely selected.

Some regiments will be removed at once and those which cannot be moved probably will be ordered to proceed upon practice marches, the object being to scatter troops as much as possible and to relieve the severa camps from the effect of concentration. The belief is now general among the officials of the war department that concentration in large camps and comparative inactivity together with the failure of troops to take rigid precautions as advised by the medical department has been the cause of much sickness in the various camps.

Tumor In the Breast Cured

Six or seven years ago I had a lump so known to come in my breast which made it swell so much that it became so hard I could not make a dent in the breast. It was so painful and caused me to suffer so that some nights I could hardly turn in the bed or rest. Nothing did me any good, and I was very uneasy, not knowing how it would terminate. I used one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, without stopping on it, and it made a perfect cure of me. The lump disappeared gradually and I have never had any trouble from it since.

Mr. Smith's Report.

Mr. John R. Smith states that his "report" was properly made out and filed with the directors last January. Says it is now in the hands of the governor and has been for some time.

Is it not strange, then, the governor having this important document in his possession, did not furnish it promptly when it was requested, instead of inditing the disgraceful letter to Mr. Simmons?

It being a public document will not the people think it very strange that they cannot get a look at its contents six months after it should have been given to the public?

Let us have a copy of that report, governor.—Morning Post.

A SENSE OF HUMOR.

It Is a Precious Gift and Helps to Lighten Life's Way.

I regard a sense of humor as one of the most precious gifts that can be vouchsafed to a human being. He is not necessarily a better man for having it, but he is a happier one. It renders him indifferent to good or bad fortune. It enables him to enjoy his own discomfiture.

Blessed with this sense he is never unduly elated or cast down. No one can ruffle his temper. No abuse disturbs his equanimity. Bores do not bore him. Humbugs do not humbug him. Solemn airs do not impose on him. Sentimental gush does not influence him. The follies of the moment have no hold on him. Titles and decorations are but childish baubles in his eyes. Prejudice does not warp his judgment. He is never in conceit or out of conceit with himself. He abhors all dogmatism. The world is a stage on which actors strut and fret for his edification and amusement, and he pursues the even current of his way, invulnerable, doing what is right and proper according to his lights, but utterly indifferent whether what he does finds approval or disapproval from others.

If Hamlet had had any sense of humor, he would not have been a nuisance to himself and to all surrounding him. —London Truth.

Spending Money.

It is an excellent thing to give children as soon as they arrive at about 12 years, or even before, a little allowance for spending money and an account book. Show them how to keep an account of small expenditures and make it a condition that they do so if they wish to receive their allowance. There is no instruction more necessary to children than instruction in the wise management of money. Children should be taught early what true economy is and to exercise their judgment—not their fancy—in making purchases. A little instruction now, and experience if need be, of the genuine discomforts of extravagance may save them from much suffering in after years. —New York Ledger.

He Had Changed.

A widow once called upon an artist and asked him to paint a portrait of her husband. "When can he sit?" inquired the artist. "He can't sit at all," said the widow, "he's dead." "Then you will have to furnish me with his photograph," said the artist. "He never had his picture taken," said the widow. Nevertheless the artist undertook the job, and when he had finished the work he asked the widow to come and see it.

"It's a fine picture," said she, "and you'll please send it to my home—but how the old man has changed."—Boston Herald.

He Saw the Play.

They were giving "She Stoops to Conquer" in a small provincial town. A penniless individual, anxious to see the play, stalked past the ticket office in a careless, independent sort of way. When stopped and asked by what right he went in without paying, he replied:

"By what right! I am Oliver Goldsmith, the author of the piece they are going to perform!"

"Ah, beg pardon, sir," said the check taker, making a bow.

And Goldsmith walked in to see his play.—London Answers.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. A NICE TRIP.

The Colored Sabbath Schools Visited Danville.

Communicated.

For more than two years the different Sabbath schools of Greensboro have desired to go on a picnic excursion to Danville, Va.

About July 25th D. B. Yancey was sent with a letter of introduction from Mayor Nelson to wait on the mayor, street car, and park officials. Having made all necessary arrangements the excursion left for Danville August 5th with five well filled coaches.

We went direct to the park, where the generous Mr. J. H. Thornton, who knows how to treat every person, and who is quite a favorite among the ladies, through whose influence he remains at the park, had everything arranged for our accommodation.

Mr. N. W. Buckley and his polite street car force were kept busy all day handling the crowd, as a great many spent most of their time riding over the city.

The park is a beautiful place, containing about 54 acres with delightful drives throughout. Situated near the front entrance are the city reservoirs, wells of splendid water, and excellent shade trees.

The park is nicely kept by Mr. J. H. Thornton, chief police of the city park. While in conversation with Mr. J. G. Witcher, we found him a very clever gentleman, having been a slave holder, he knows the negro and knows how to treat him. He showed us several acres of ground which he intends to put in first-class condition expressly for the colored people. He gave us the use of his horse and buggy that we might ride over the park and view it from all sides. We are indebted to Mayor Nelson for his letter of introduction, to Mr. Witcher, chairman of the park committee, for his friendly considerations, to Mr. Thornton for the interest he manifested in us and to Mr. N. W. Buckly, superintendent of the street car line, who gave us 700 lbs of ice free. Our people were complimented on all sides, not a cross word was heard, it is said to have been the most orderly excursion ever carried over the road or seen in Danville,

Three cheers for Danville.
Rev. J. F. Lee,
D. B. Yancey.
Committee.

James R. Jobin, of Missouri, has the strangest home in the United States. He lives on a floating island in the Mississippi, known as the Arsenal Island. The island is the property of J. S. Pittsfield, of Illinois, but is leased by Jobin, who lives upon it. His house is in the midst of a pretty grove of willows, sycamores and cottonwoods at the upper end of the islands. It is surrounded by storage house and poultry yards. Stretching away from the grove are many acres of fertile land in an excellent state of cultivation. Since 1853 Arsenal Island has moved southward 8,000 feet.

A Splendid Entertainment.

Mr. Conrad who is in town getting things in readiness for the excursion to the Masonic pic nic tomorrow says he attended an entertainment in Lexngton given by the chapter of orphans who will be at Mocksville tomorrow and that it was the best he had ever witnessed as given by the orphans. The present chapter are not only well trained but have exceptionally fine voices. They are so well advanced in years that their voices are very loud and clear and their rendition of popular pieces of music in duets, quartetts and solos, are equal to any entertainment given by the colleges for special occasions. They are an exceptionally a fine lot of children and make a splendid appearance on the stage. He says the flag drill and a medley of many popular airs completely captivated everybody. Don't miss the opportunity to take in this great pic nic tomorrow.

Score One More.

Almost daily now we hear of new business houses for Greensboro, to say nothing of the many handsome dwellings that are now in course of construction. Some time ago the Telegram mentioned the fact that J. W. Jones had bought the old frame building next to West's bar and that he would erect a business house there. The work of tearing down the old building began today. Messrs. J. W. Jones and Fred Taylor will erect a handsome building on the lot at an early date. The building will be 20x90 feet, three stories high.

"What weapon did Samson use in slaying the Philistines?" asked the Sunday school superintendent during the general exercises.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.
